

New Summer School

This summer, the Camberley Theatre is holding its first ever Summer School, called Summer Stars.

Running for a whole week from August 4 to 8 from 10am to 4pm, the course offers the chance to learn new skills in singing, dancing and acting. The course aims to build confidence in abilities as a performer and give an insight into the industry that is showbiz.

The classes will be led by performing arts professionals who will help participants to become a star.

Dance with Stuart Sweeting

As a performer, Stuart has appeared in the West End musicals Me and My Girl, 42nd Street, Mack and Mabel and Starlight Express. He was also resident director on Bombay Dreams in London. Stuart has choreographed extensively for theatre and television, including the Camberley Theatre's 2007 production of Cinderella.

Singing with Michael Roets

Michael has worked as a musical director for a number of productions including High School Musical, Grease and A Slice of Saturday Night and our 2007 production of Cinderella. He regularly performs as a singer in his home country of South Africa and released his debut album, Africa Kind in 2005.

Acting with Ed Simpson

Ed has directed at The Globe, The National Theatre and in the West End. He was the Youth Theatre Director at the Royal & Derngate, has led workshops for National Youth Music Theatre and has directed on the London Fringe and at the Edinburgh Festival. At present, he is the associate artist for Camberley Theatre, where he leads the Youth Theatre.

The week will culminate in a showcase on the theatre's main stage that friends and family will be able to attend. Come and discover your star quality this summer at the Camberley Theatre.

The week costs £120 for each student and is for ages eight to 16. To book please call our Box Office on 01276 707600.

News Flash - News Flash - News Flash - News Flash

...Jack and the Beanstalk Cast Announcement...

Camberley Theatre panto will be full of beans!

Richard Grieve

There will be magic and excitement galore this Christmas at the Camberley Theatre with an exciting new production of the classic fairytale Jack and the Beanstalk, sponsored by The Mall Camberley.

Promising to be the Camberley Theatre's most successful Christmas show yet, this year's pantomime will feature Emmerdale star Richard Grieve as the ever-so bad baddie Fleshcreep. Before his role as Jonny Foster in Emmerdale, Richard Grieve had already achieved fame for two soap roles down under, as Sam Kratz in Neighbours and Lachlan Fraser in Home And Away.

The fun-packed show will also feature great sets, wonderful costumes, West-End class singing and a tap-dancing cow. Jack and the Beanstalk runs from December 10 to January 4 — tickets cost £15.95, friends and concessions £14.50. Group offers are available and all can be booked by calling the box office on 01276 707600 or by visiting www.camberleytheatre.biz.